

Lakes Entrance Bowls Club Great Sweet Bake-Off: Auction Sunday April 9th 2017

Rules & Conditions

Entry is free. The Auction is open to the general public and all are encouraged to participate and support the fundraising event.

All Entries in the preceding Bake-off Competition will be up for Auction. No reserve prices will be set.

Any Bake-Off competitor wishing to keep their own Entry, must participate in the Auction and be the highest bidder for that Item.

Prior to the Auction, persons wishing to bid on any item must collect a Bidder's Number.

The Auction will commence following the Bake-Off Competition.

Each Bake-Off item will be auctioned off in order of the main display. The 13yrs and Under Section items will be auctioned off intermittently throughout the main display items.

The highest bidder is to show their Bidder's Number when the hammer falls.

Once the hammer has fallen, no further bids will be accepted for that item.

The Item Number, name of item, Bidder's Number and Sale Price will be recorded as the Auction progresses.

A winning Bidder must present their Bidder's number with payment. A 'Paid' receipt, identifying the Display Item, is provided to the Bidder (new Owner of the Baked Goods)

Goods cannot be removed from the Display until the conclusion of the afternoon's Auction.

Goods cannot be removed from the Display by any persons other than the Club's nominated personnel.

Goods must be taken on the day.

A list of ingredients, as provided by the Bake-Off Entrant, will be supplied with each Auction Item. The Club cannot guarantee that any Bake-Off item will be allergy-free or will not contain traces of nut products.

The Club holds no responsibility for any unforeseen issue arising from the purchase of Bake-Off items.

At the conclusion of the Auction, the amount raised will be announced. These proceeds, plus any other donations, raffle takings etc. from the day will be donated to the Royal Children's Hospital Good Friday Appeal. The total amount raised on the day will be displayed within the Club and posted on the Club's webpage.

Throughout the Great Bake-Off Competition and Auction, the Club reserves the right to amend the Rules & Conditions if deemed necessary. In the case of any disagreement or query, the Club's decision is final.
